

Carlisle Natural History Society

In search of nature since 1893

Winter Talks Programme 2024 - 2025

All meetings on Wednesday evenings 7.15pm at Tuille House, Carlisle (doors open 6.45pm)

2nd October 2024	Andy Wilson - Borders Forest Trust	Wildheart - A Changing Landscape
16th October 2024	Dave Blackledge	Diversity of Spiders in Cumbria
30th October 2024	Prof. Ian Newton	Geoff Horne Memorial Lecture. Highlights from a long-term study of Sparrowhawks (MEMBERS ONLY)
13th November 2024	Members Night	Contributions from the membership
27th November 2024	Richard Francksen	Raptors and Red Grouse: Can predator-prey dynamics help solve conflict?
11th December 2024	Ian Francis	How the Lake District landscape was formed: a deep-time perspective
8th January 2025	David Scott-Langley	Ultima Thule - The Edge of the World
22nd January 2025	Ben Averis	The vegetation and climate of temperate rainforest in Britain and Ireland
5th February 2025	Joint Meeting with Cumbria Bird Club. Susannah Bleakley - Curlew Recovery South Lakes (CRSL)	Conserving Curlews: A Tale of Dedication and Hope
19th February 2025	Members Night	Contributions from the membership
5th March 2025	AGM followed by Dr Claire Holt	Red Squirrels (Provisional Title)